Prayer was led by Mrs C. E. Linam. After the reading of the minutes and roll call by the secretary, committee reports were called for. The Court House yard project was further discussed and plans for the preparation of the beds made. Mrs Chas. Long promised to supervise the workmen. Mrs J. C. Peyton president of the P. I. Q. asked the club if they would match seven dollars and a half that the P. I. Q. were giving toward furnishing the school cafeteria. Mrs O. B. Sherrill made the motion that we give this amount and Mrs C. Chas. Long seconded it. The motion carried. The dollar was given by the club to Mr. Wallace to buy Christmas fruit for the inmates of the Court House. Members of the club promised to personally do what they could to make the Santa Claus on the home of the sick. Mrs C. E. Linam

was made possible by the gift of the consolidated school. Mrs H.
J. Wallace brought the book "History of art in Miss" which the Club had purchased. She expressed pleasure and knowledge gained from reading it and presented it to other members of the club to be read and appreciated before it is to be given to the school library.

The meeting was turned over to the leader for the afternoon Mrs R. L. Wallace. "Women of the Bible Bible and women of today" was the subject. Mrs Wallace handled this subject beautifully showing much study and preparation.
The Program was given in the form of a Tableau of Biblical Characters and scenes. Mrs Wallace read an introduction before each scene.
Then heavy blue velvet curtains were drawn revealing the tableau while Mrs E. R. Britt gave the Bible reading describing the character.

April 17, 1934

The Raymond Home Culture Club met in the home of Mrs. Harris Wallace Thursday afternoon, April 17, with Mrs. J. C. Peyton as co-hostess. The home was charmingly decorated with a profusion of spring flowers, a gift of Mrs. Allen.

A number of guests were present including: Mrs. E. Hall of Washington, Mrs. J. H. McDowell of Jackson, Miss Carrie B. Orr of Whitehall and Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. D. D. D. and Miss Bates of Raymond.

The following business was transacted and dispensed with:

1. The club was called to order by the president, Mrs. Merrill and the club collect was read.
2. A report from the program committee chairman, Mrs. D. D. D. told the club that during the last year it would take a trip around the world - starting from home, visiting eight foreign countries and back home at the end of the year.
3. Mrs. McDowell of Jackson issued an invitation to the Raymond Home Culture Club to join the Hinds County Federation. She stated that the club could join the Hinds County Federation for fifty cents per fifteen members. This membership would enable the local club to have its year book printed in the Hinds County Federated Club book and to have wider recognition in the state.

4. Mrs. Harris Wallace made a motion to join the Hinds County Federation. The motion was seconded and the club instructed the secretary to send one dollar to Mrs. D. J. Morrison, Secretary, Jackson, Mississippi.

5. Mrs. Harris Wallace and Mrs. J. C. Peyton presented five cushions, their contribution toward furnishing the County poor house.

Mrs. C. V. Shearer was appointed chairman of the Committee to look after the welfare of the poor house.

May 20, 1934

The Raymond Home Culture Club met in the home of Mrs. Hugh Billiepie with Mrs. Cade Billiepie as co-hostess May 20, 1934.

1. The meeting was opened by Mrs. R. B. McNeil, President, having called to roll.
2. In the absence of Mrs. Tabernacle E. Duncan, Secretary and Mrs. Charles Gross, Treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Peyton called the roll collecting lists for Mrs. Dandley's dues. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.
3. Mrs. R. W. McNeil made the statement that an invoice of the Rose Farm had been sent and had been turned without a word having been said at the home Mrs. D. H. Duncan was asked as chairman of the Rose Farm committee to notify the parties of the invoice and ask them to pay a few weeks the next time they were here. Mrs. R. W. McNeil in the next time brought the invoice which was no beautifully arranged and typed by Mrs. W. D. Gamble, Mrs. W. D. Penitance and Mrs. A. A. Madden. Mrs. Gamble made the lower boxes and Mrs. Penitance and Mrs. Madden did the typing. It was done at a cost of sixty cents. The club voted to pay the bill. We wish to thank these ladies for their kindness and hard work. We also thank the program committee for the nice programs.

5. In the absence of Mrs. Duncan, Chairman of Better Homes, Mrs. Peyton presented expense list of $3.70. The club voted to pay this expense.

Mrs. McNeill said Mrs. Duncan had worked so hard with this and had a lovely exhibit as well as a fine booklet which she wished all could have seen.

6. Mrs. N. B. McNeill and Mrs. Hugh Gillespie gave a report of the District meeting attended by Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Gillespie and Mrs. J. C. Peyton. They reported that the Raymond Home Culture Club had won First Place (42.50) in Garden,

Second in Education and Third in Instruction.

7. There being no further business meeting was then over to Mrs. Hugh Gillespie, program leader for the meeting and the following program was read:

1. Mrs. Hugh Gillespie read a poem "Come Around the Corner" by Shaemas O'Sheal.

2. Mrs. Kate Gillespie called the names of each lady present. They answered with the name of a wild flower. She then read an article on "Concepts of Wild Flowers". She told us the buttercup is the sweetest of all flowers and the buttercup and columbine are fair and plots of other interesting things.

3. Miss Thomas Spenn played "Dance Music" by William Mason. Lady and enjoyed this lovely music very much. We have to hope the girls play for us.

4. Mrs. Hugh Gillespie then read a poem "Garden" entitled "Garden" by a woman.

5. Mrs. Thomas Spenn read the life of Mr. McDowell the composer. Mrs. Gillespie explained that since this was the beginning of our trip would the next neighborhood of course begin at home.

6. This was followed by three piano selections composed by McDowell. These were played by Misses Myrtle Ann and Dorothy Lusk. Dorothy played "To a wild Rose" while Myrtle Ann played "Fireflies and Papillone Roses". These girls played beautifully and we enjoyed them very much.

7. Mrs. Bob Clark sang "The Old Cabin Bickett, Macisney accompanied by her sister Mrs. Chas. Linan. We always enjoy Mr. Clark's singing but at this time it seemed sweeter if possible than ever.

8. Delicious refreshments were served. In some we will all vote to meet with the Mrs.

Gillespies often. During refreshments Mrs. Hugh Gillespie read extracts from "The Land of Long Ago". What pure does a visiting by the

Robert Hall. He enjoyed both very much.
